Jill,

Further to our recent conversations, I wish, at this point, to put one question to the Coroner:

In the statement read by Mr. Leckey at the outset of his inquest into the death of Lucy Crawford, he stated:

"Advice was then sought from a pathologist attached to the Stage Pathologist's Department as to whether the clinical history warranted a coroner's post-mortem examination being carried out."

Q: Does this mean that it was Mr. Leckey's office, which sought the advice from the pathologist, or the clinician, Dr. Donncha Hanrahan?

I look forward to hearing from you.

Trevor.
