Marie,

Sorry about this, but I have another question:

(1) Again, in the statement, you say:

"The matter was also raised by Dr Fulton with Dr. W. McConnell from the Western Health and Social Services Board who advised that he would speak to Dr. Henrietta Campbell, CMO. On 5th July 2001, Dr. McConnell confirmed that he had notified the CMO."

Question: Why was it necessary for Dr. McConnell to advise Dr. Fulton that he would speak to Henrietta Campbell given that Mrs. Burnside had spoken to her directly in the days following Raychel's death and Mr. Nesbitt had attended a meeting chaired by the Deputy CMO, Dr. Ian Carson?

Apologies for this.

Trevor.
