To All

My advice would be to continue to decline the interview request and repeat our offer to answer any questions they wish to forward to us(see line to take below). The Minister is not going to be around much in May and June due to various things including the European elections so I think we stick to our guns.

Happy to discuss

Kevin

Kevin.
Thanks for your reply.
I am naturally disappointed, but understand the pressure on the Minister's time.
Can I now repeat my request for an interview. There is considerable interest in a case where hospital errors resulted in the death of a young baby, so I hope the Minister can find some time to address the concerns of the public. I will be in touch to see if you can give me some indication of whether the Minister will give a short interview, and when I could possibly hope to schedule it.
I feel I must also decline your offer of forwarding questions. I sent a number of questions to you on the last occasion, but felt the Minister's statement did not answer any of them.

I agree. If we were to offer an interview to the impartial reporter it would be very difficult to turn down a future request from UTV.
