Further to my earlier e-mail, Minister is now content to have the first pre-brief for this on Thursday 27 May at 9.00-9.30. This will be by VCR as Minister is in London. I would be grateful if briefing could be with Private Office by 10:30 on Wednesday morning so Minister can read prior to the pre-brief.

Much appreciated
Sholto

Dean, Noel, Miriam

Dr Campbell has suggested that it would be helpful if someone from your directorates provided Dr McCarthy with any relevant input regarding the Lucy Crawford case. We are trying to reschedule for Thursday morning at 9.00am if Minister agrees to give officials more time for drafting briefing. We will confirm time of pre-brief in the morning.

Subject: INV/104/2004 - 1st pre-brief for Interview with the Impartial Reporter

To all concerned

The 1st pre-brief for INV/104/2004 - Interview with the Impartial Reporter (initially 01/06) has had to be re-scheduled at Minister's request.

Unfortunately, the only time that is available in Minister's diary for this is 25/05/04 at 17.10-17.30.

This means that we will need some sort of briefing material in Private Office tomorrow no later than 14.00.

Apologies for the inconvenience of this very short deadline.

The 2nd pre-brief and the actual interview remain at the same time.

Lisa
