Subject: Next Meeting
Importance: High

Hi folks. Grainne and I just realised that our next meeting is scheduled for Good Friday - 9th April - and that more members than usual might be on Annual Leave that day. Given that the meeting is the AGM and a good turnout is important, we thought that it might be better to change the date.

We agreed I would contact you to receive views on this so could you please advise me ASAP if you think we should change the date and then, if so, which of the following dates would suit you best:

Friday 16th April (although that is Easter Week so some of you may be on leave that day too)
Friday 23rd April
Friday 30th April

All the above would be in Musgrave Park and starting as usual at 10.30am.

You will appreciate that it won't be able to facilitate everybody so if the general consensus is that we should change the date, we will go for the date that suits the majority. It is important though that we get as many people as possible at the AGM.

Regards.

Marie
