Dear John,

Thank-you for your e-mail, which I received this morning.

As I said during our conversation on Friday, we are continuing to investigate events surrounding the deaths of Lucy Crawford and Raychel Ferguson.

Given your concerns, it may be necessary to conduct another interview to give you the opportunity to express your position in relation to the RCPCH visit at the Erne Hospital.

Either way, as promised, we'll come back to you asap.

Best wishes,
Trevor.

Dear Trevor

Further to your detailed questions during our recent telephone conversation, I would like to confirm that I was not involved in arranging, nor did I take part in, an RCPCH visit at the request of the Sperrin Lakeland Trust.

I have confirmed this with Len Tyler at RCPCH, who has assured me that he did not lead you to understand otherwise.

I am also copying this to Len as I would like to ensure that there is no confusion regarding this matter.
