Mr Gowdy

You will wish to note the attached message which I have forwarded to Mr O'Hara. This follows on from the criticism of the other families involved about the staffing of the Inquiry. Iris Robinson has also been critical of the staffing, in the Belfast Telegraph, on Saturday evening and I noted the Departemnt's line.

I have also confirmed in email to John O'Hara that you would like a word with him on the situation. I expect him into the office this morning.

Mrs Crawford rang today Friday 19th November at 3.35pm wishing to speak to Mr O'Hara. She expressed that she was very unhappy with the involvement of DHSSPS staff in the Inquiry and would like Mr O'Hara to listen to her concerns. She said that it was not personal to the staff involved but that she had been messed around for the past 4 years by Sperrin Lakeland Trust and the CMO that she no longer has any confidence in either. She would like to see someone brought in from outside Northern Ireland.
