Dear Dr Fulton

Thank you for your quick reply. I have provisionally put 2pm on Tuesday 14 February into my diary for our meeting and will confirm that by 2pm today.

I have also provisionally arranged to see Dr Nesbitt on the morning of the same day.

Dear Mr Cross

Tuesday 14 Feb in the afternoon would suit me. Say 2pm. I am sure Therese can arrange a room on the Altnagelvin site or we can use my office in Anderson House which is just beside Therese and Dr Nesbitt. Please confirm as soon as you know your programme.

Subject: Interview

Dear Dr Fulton,

I have been in contact yesterday and today with Therese Brown and Dr Nesbitt in relation to confirming dates and times for interviews in relation to the events surrounding the death of Raychel Ferguson. Dr Nesbitt suggested Tuesday 14 February as a date suitable for him. Can I ask if any time on that date is suitable for us to meet separately with you? We could meet at Altnagelvin or at any other place of your choosing.

The only caveat I would make is to say there is a slight chance that I may be out of the country on that date, and will know by lunch tomorrow (Friday 10/2), so a final confirmation will not be possible until then.

If you can confirm a time and we are to meet I will email outlining the main areas which I wish to cover, though our interview would not be restricted to those if you wished to raise others.

Thanking you,

Billy Cross
DSgt.
