

Phonecall from Mr Heckey

226

Mr Heckey has no difficulty re calling nurses & will arrange the witness summonses.

Re other corresp → he does not consider it appropriate to tender corresp. as evidence - Dr Fulton should be asked to submit a statement in narrative form which refers to the info. I pointed out that the letters to/from CMO were from Dr Nesbitt.

Mr Leckey suggested that Dr Fulton may wish to say "My colleague Dr Nesbitt wrote..."

Mr Leckey said he appreciated that Dr Fulton wld wish to put in his 2p worth. ~~but that~~ and had no difficulty w him giving aid but he is not an essential witness

Message/Instruction:

Mr Dekey advised that there were no problems with the three statements provided by the nursing staff -
 - On Sullivan's statement would have to be re-visited to follow a more narrative form.
 - Do we consent to the letters marked 'Private & Confidential' being disclosed to On James.
 - Mr Dekey will ring back sometime mid-morning
