PRESS STATEMENT

(only to be issued if media enquiry received)

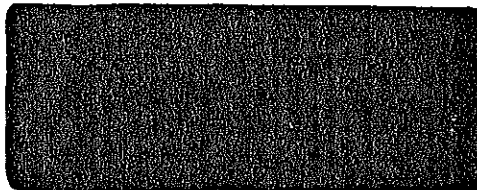

Commenting on the Coroners inquest into the death of Lucy Crawford, the chief executive of the Sperrin Lakeland Health and Social Care Trust, Mr Hugh Mills, stated "Clearly this was a tragedy for the Crawford family. We hope the inquest brings some closure for Mr and Mrs Crawford.

We want to ensure that any lessons are used to inform future practice, not only by ourselves, but also other colleagues within the health care professions."
