

John Forsythe and Keith Rigg Response to Document 301-121-656
from DLS

This does not change the facts of our report, but re-emphasizes the need for the surgeon to have been involved in the decision to accept the kidney and the need to inspect the kidney and to do the benchwork before the patient was anaesthetised.

5 April 2012