Dear Ms Beggs,

Re Raychel Ferguson Preliminary

I refer to your letter of 3 January 2013, which attached, inter alia, copy attendance sheet for the 10 August 2000 Audit meeting at which, inter alia, Lucy Crawford's death was discussed.

I write to put you on notice that the Inquiry considers this document to be relevant to the issues under investigation in this case and that it is intended to make it available to interested parties and to publish it, without redaction. The Inquiry cannot at present determine with certainty which of the persons named in this list did (or did not) participate in presentation and discussion of Lucy's death, but it must be assumed that all attendees had at least the opportunity to participate in that discussion. Accordingly it is considered that all names on the list are relevant.

If you have any representations to make on this approach please do so by 22 April 2013.

Yours sincerely,

Brian McLoughlin
Assistant Solicitor to the Inquiry
