

Q3 a

Altnagelvin Area Hospital Annual Reports
Accreditation – Awards – Charter Mark

2003-2004 Re-accredited at UNICEF Baby Friendly Hospital

Document control software has been installed to meet the needs of accreditation and clinical governance (Clinical Chemistry and Haematology).

Staff working toward A1 assessor and V1 verifier awards- NVQ.

2002-2003

Obstetrics

The Maternity Unit was successful in its application for renewal of the Charter Mark Award previously awarded in 1999.

2001-2002

Altnagelvin was awarded the UNICEF Baby Friendly Status in June 2001.

Another successful application to the Martha McMenemy Memorial Fund provided a certified aqua natal training course for midwives.

Gynaecology – Accreditation of Consultant as a European Trainor in Endometrial Ablation.

Obstetrics - The Maternity Unit is submitting an application to gain renewal of the Charter Mark Award previously attained in 1999.

Achievement of Full CPA Accreditation of all departments.

Regain registration with the Medical Devices Agency.

Charter Monitoring Achievements – Findings.

Maternity Services have reapplied for the Charter Mark for their second three year term.

Altnagelvin has been accredited with the UK UNICEF Baby Friendly Award.

1999-2000

Dermatology – A Charter Mark commendation for standards of Service and Care.

Obstetrics - The Maternity Unit was awarded the Charter Mark for Excellence in provision of Maternity Services.

Key Achievements – Ongoing monitoring of Patient Charter Standards
Charter Monitoring Achievements – Figures

1998-1999

Dermatology – The Unity has been highly commended by the Charter Mark Office in recognition of its high standard of Service.

ENT – The appointment of a third ENT Consultant has allowed outpatients referrals to be dealt with within Charter Standards and prevented long waiting times for surgery.

Obstetrics – The Maternity Department was Highly commended by the Charter Marker Awards for providing a high quality public service.

The UNICEF UK Baby Friendly Initiative has awarded a Certificate of Commitment to the Maternity Department.

Charter Monitoring Achievement

A new Charter Standard was introduced in April 1998 in the Accident and Emergency Department.