Bernie

Please see below copy letter, with attachments, sent yesterday by Dr Michael McBride, CMO to Sir Andrew Dillon, the Chief Executive of NICE. You will note that the question of guidance on fluid management in children continues to be a topical issue within the medical community. The four UK CMOs believe a UK-wide approach would be desirable to promote best practice. In this context it was felt appropriate, indeed important, to make reference therein to the Inquiry into Hyponatraemia-related Deaths.

As a matter of course, the Department has sought to share all relevant documents with the Inquiry and I would be grateful therefore if you would bring this correspondence to the attention of Mr O'Hara.

Should you require any further details please do not hesitate to contact me.

Kind Regards

Catherine Rodgers
