Bernie

I refer to your below request and would advise that the Department have checked their records and can confirm that the author of the handwritten notes is Dr Miriam McCarthy.

Kind regards

Catherine

Catherine - this document was submitted from the department with the original department papers back in 2004 and is listed as CMO - Correspondence. The document itself is just referred as 'Handwritten Notes'. I hope this helps.

Brian

I refer to your recent request for confirmation of author of document 007-038. To assist the Department speed up their response could you please put the document in context, i.e. confirm what papers it was submitted with or where it is referred to.

Many thanks

Catherine
