

Name: Lorna Cullen

Address:

Telephone Number:

Date of Birth:

Personal Statement

I consider myself to have exceptional leadership and interpersonal skills. I work effectively both as a team member and independently. I am enthusiastic, committed and passionate about all aspect of my work. I demonstrate excellent interpersonal skills as I am a good listener, approachable and people feel comfortable confiding in me. I consider myself to be a very organised person and work well under pressure.

Education

O Levels obtained in 1971

English Language	C
Human Biology	C
Domestic Science	C

RSA Maths Stage 2	Pass	1971
-------------------	------	------

UKCC	Part 1 SRN	1975
------	------------	------

UKCC	Part 10 SCM	1977
------	-------------	------

Further Education

Certificate for Intensive Nursing Care Course	1977
---	------

Certificate for Short Course in Diabetic Nursing	1989
--	------

Diploma in Professional Development in Nursing	1991
--	------

BSC Honours in Professional Development in Nursing	1993
--	------

Work Experience:

Staff Nurse, Theatres, Craigavon Area Hospital,	November 1975 – February 1976
Staff Nurse, Intensive Care Unit, Craigavon Area Hospital,	September 1977 – October 1979
Staff Nurse, Coronary Care Unit, Craigavon Area Hospital,	October 1979 – October 1982
Ward Sister Acute Medical Ward, 4 South, Craigavon Area Hospital	November 1982 – September 1983
Ward Sister (Grade G), Acute Medical Ward, 4 South, Craigavon Area Hospital,	October 1993 – September 2002
Project Manager, Creating new Medical Admissions Unit, Craigavon Area Hospital,	September 2002 – February 2003
Ward Manger, Medical Admissions Unit, Craigavon Area Hospital,	March 2003 - Present

Further information:

Runner up in RCN Team Manager of the Year Award	2005
Achievement award from Dungannon and South Tyrone Council	2006
Volunteer assistant with St James' Junior and Senior Choir, Aughnacloy

References:

Mrs E O'Rourke

Tel: [REDACTED]

Mrs M Burke

Tel: [REDACTED]